"MAIDS OF JOYLAND"

Last night the company put on a frolicsome comedy made up of medley matter which included the rough and tumble of Irish and Dutch comedian, which included dancing and songs, supported by a chorus, and herein we note that the company has got an extra girl, wearing new and attractive costumes and general deporting themselves well on the stage.

As we said when they were last here they are giving a good twenty and thirty cent show, the comedy is quite fine, and the hour the curtain is raised gives one a good many hearty laughs, and that is worth while.

ONE AT A TIME

Harvey D. Orr comedian with There She Goes Co., which shows at the Dixie Thursday night, owns a pet parrot that is valued highly. During his "early days" in the amusement business, Mr. Orr was a ticket seller with one of the large circuses. A parrot was presented to him and having no suitable place to carry Miss Polly, a home was made for her in the ticket wagon. During the mad rush for tickets, Polly would sit on her master shoulder looking wise and taking in everything. During the rush Mr. Orr repeated many times the words, "One at a time gentleman, one at a time." One afternoon late in the summer Polly flew from the wagon, and was lost to view. After closing hours, Orr set out to find his "bird." The circus lot was beside a corn field so over the fence and right into the field went Mr. Orr. Going about fifty feet, he heard a big commotion, hurrying toward the noise, Orr came to a barren spot; there was poor Polly, surrounded by fifty crows all taking a peck at her. Her beautiful plumage was scattered over the grounds, she was bravely defending herself, and saying in a feeble voice, "one at a time gentlemen, one at a time."

COLORED CHILDREN BUY STAMPS

Editor, Commonwealth.
The Union Juvenile Society has bought some war savings stamps and expects to buy many more.
CHARLIE T. SMITH, Pres.

Miss Susie Fitzpatrick has been appointed chairman for Halifax county of the National Woman's Liberty Loan Committee and was in town yesterday afternoon arranging her sub-committees.
The government looks to every woman to do her part in influencing investment in these bonds even though they cannot buy themselves, and Miss Fitzpatrick quotes a remark made by the Treasurer of United States, Mr. Burke, in Raleigh last Saturday, "It's better to invest in government securities and get interest for your money than to possess a tax receipt."

DAWSON'S MASS MEETING

The people of Dawson's community are working with untiring efforts to make the meeting Wednesday, March 27 the turning point for Dawson's children both for education and social advantages.

This community is in greater need perhaps, than any county for a consolidated school. Visitors are quick to observe the very great numbers of children here of school age (they also notice and make remarks about the little school room), where these same children are supposed to get an education. Our children far exceed the school advances here. One teacher cannot teach all grades and do justice.
How are they ever to reach the heights of their ambitions, if we do not prepare a way?

Every parent in the said district is forced to feel it their duty to meet with us Wednesday next, for the purpose of improving these conditions.
Of course there will be "some slack-ers", but never the less, they will in time "see straight" and be glad to join.

Every voter could well afford to pay the extra tax, yes even double it many times to build a better school.
Nothing would increase your property as much, even though it makes rent higher as some argue, but what is more taxes and rent in comparison to a half educated child? Let every voter make that effort and come to this special meeting and hear what educated people are going to say in favor of Dawson's consolidated school.
At the present time the writer's children are being taught by a governess owing to the insufficiency of the public school.

Dawson's is worthy of greater things and we MUST have a school.
Remember the date March 27, at three o'clock, sharp.
